Visual aids: legible and logical, used effectively.	High quality, clearly understandable and creative. Logic of information flow is immediately clear. Excellent use of found or original figures and appropriate references given .	Images & text do support ideas. May have some extra or missing info. Some images may be hard to see. Flow of information may be slightly confusing.	Too few images, or extraneous ones. Too much or too little detail. Perhaps tough to see the structure of the presentation.	Text and images are not easily usable, unrelated, or ill prepared. Far too much or too little text.		X 1
Delivery: pace, volume & enunciation.	Evidence of rehearsal, audible, confident, good English. Delivery is enthusiastic and engaging for the viewers. Seamless flow from introduction through to conclusion. At target time limit.	Perhaps some visible nervousness or uncertainty, but generally well presented. At target time limit.	Some hesitancy or lack of enthusiasm. Slightly long or short. Not rehearsed, read the slides.	Appears to have not practiced, or otherwise ill-prepared. Too long, rushed, or too short. Read the slides.		X 1
Questions: Knowledgeably handled	Thoughtful response to questions, using sound logic and/or reference to precedent & research not necessarily mentioned in actual presentation. Using the opportunity to express further insights on the topic. Further depth of knowledge clearly demonstrated rather than just the information in the presentation.	Questions handled knowledgeably and with confidence. Thoughtful response to questions, using sound logic and/or reference to precedent & research not necessarily mentioned in actual presentation.	Strong effort made to answer questions, but lacked depth of knowledge beyond what was already presented. Simple content related questions were handled well however application/ analytical questions were not.	Answers to obvious questions lacking. Unable to answer some content related questions		X 2
